

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CANADA DAY FOCUS ON CANADIAN FURNITURE MANUFACTURERS

DUBLIN, ONT. (JUNE 10, 2010) - Stephen Goettler, President of G. G. Goettler Furniture Inc. and associated companies, is announcing today that their company is showcasing and promoting their “Made in Canada” furniture brands throughout the month of June.

The promotion is called True Patriot Love. “Goettler Furniture’s corporate philosophy has always been better quality furniture at discounted prices” says Stephen Goettler. “The ‘Made in Canada’ story fits very well into this frame of thinking.” “There seems to be a great deal of interest in domestically made product. We are very pleased to see this, and we love selling domestic goods.”

Goettler Furniture’s website, ontariosfurniturevillage.com is showcasing Canadian brands, such as Décor-Rest and Brentwood Classics, as well as brief descriptions of the manufacturers. It is a compelling story as we have a very rich local history of Canadian furniture manufacturing with Bogdon and Gross in Walkerton, Durham Furniture in Durham and many years ago Kroehler Furniture in Stratford.

“We are very proud of our furniture heritage, here in Dublin, and we want to not only serve our existing customers better, we want to attract new customers who are interested in Canadian brands.”

About G. G. Goettler Furniture Inc

The Goettler family has been in business in Dublin since 1951, originally as grocers. During the 1970s G. G. Goettler of Dublin Fine Furniture was formed. Goettler Furniture sells and delivers furniture throughout south western Ontario. G. G. Goettler Furniture Inc. operates under the banner of Ontario’s Furniture Village.

For more information on the True Patriot Love story see ontariosfurniturevillage.com.

Steve Goettler, President of G. G. Goettler Furniture Inc, and his wife, Vivi Jensen Goettler sit on a new sofa from Canadian manufacturer, Trendline.